Acknowledgments for the 2022 edition

Reflecting the lively state of interest in T.H. Green and his thought, a great many additions have been made to this edition of the bibliography. As with the previous editions, I would like to thank those who sent in references, and hope they will not mind my not mentioning them individually. Future references will continue to be received with thanks.

Acknowledgments for the original, 2004 version

The work on this bibliography was supported by a Resource Enhancement Award (B/RE/AN3141/APN17357) from the Arts and Humanities Research Board.

'The Arts and Humanities Research Board (AHRB) funds postgraduate and advanced research within the UK's higher education institutions and provides funding for museums, galleries and collections that are based in, or attached to, HEIs within England. The AHRB supports research within a huge subject domain - from 'traditional' humanities subjects, such as history, modern languages and English literature, to music and the creative and performing arts.'

I have also profited enormously from having access to the Brynmor Jones Library at the University of Hull, a resource which benefits from an excellent stock of written and electronic sources, as well as extremely helpful and friendly librarians. My thanks also go to Dr Christopher Bearman, the research assistant on this and other projects. This bibliography draws on the bibliography in my Thomas Hill Green (1836-1882) and the Philosophical Foundations of Politics (detailed below). My aspiration for each of the bibliographies in this volume to be as complete and up-to-date as possible has led me to draw freely on Peter Nicholson's bibliographies in the fifth volume of his up-dated edition of Green's Works (Peter Nicholson, ed., Works of Thomas Hill Green, Volume 5 (Bristol: Thoemmes, 1997), pp.493-531). Geoffrey Thomas' bibliography was also of use (Thomas, 1987, pp.390-9). I also wish to thank Denys Leighton, Alberto de Sanctis and Avital Simhony for their help with other items on Green. My already great debts to Peter Nicholson have been increased by the many additional references that he has provided to me directly for this bibliography. The remaining deficiencies are my responsibility alone.

I wish to thank Philip de Bary for permission to reproduce Section II ('Reviews'), which appears in Colin Tyler, ed. Early Responses to British Idealism: Volume 1 Responses to B. Jowett, T.H. Green, E. Caird and W. Wallace (Bristol: Thoemmes Continuum, 2004), pp.157-160.
